New Officers Sworn In!

On June 5, 2023, Lieutenant Fluellen, Officer Basso, and Officer Burglin were ceremonially sworn in as Law Enforcement Officers for the City of Scappoose during a City Council Meeting. With over 30 family, friends, and fellow law enforcement officers from around the County present, the officers took their oaths to serve the City, and had their badges being pinned upon their chest by loved ones.

Swearing in ceremonies are filled with tradition and are a time for celebration! New officers swear to uphold the constitution, to faithfully uphold their oath of office as a police officer, and pledge on record to protect and serve their communities while maintaining the highest standards of moral conduct. The badge is more than just an inanimate object or a piece of metal for a police officer. For the officer and the community, it represents those who are willing to dedicate their lives to service.

Officer Basso and Burglin are currently Field Training within Columbia County where they will learn how to apply the tactics and training learned at the police academy to real world situations.

We wish our newest officers the best of luck and long safe careers!
